BEST PRACTICE -2

1. Title of the Practice : Publication of JH e-News

News of the acts of generosity, when disseminated systematically, attracts society's attention. It invokes appreciation and motivates people to involve themselves enthusiastically, creating a congenial atmosphere that leads to the accomplishment of its goals and a resultant sense of fulfillment.

2. Objectives of the Practice:

- To disseminate the information related to the activities of the college to the stakeholders
- To make society aware of the quality enhancement initiatives of the institution
- To develop the creativity of the students
- To inspire the students and teachers for greater achievements
- To promote community services
- To encourage collaborative activities
- To enhance the involvement of the stakeholders in the activities of the college
- To enhance the reputation of the college

3. The Context

Contribution to National Development is one of the five core values of the HEIs formulated by NAAC. Institutionalisation of this core value in isolation is unimaginable for any HEI. The HEIs have to establish close relationships with the stakeholders including other institutions, industries or other agencies of professional and social relevance. Before initiating these collaborative activities it is imperative on the part of the stakeholders to have some information about the multifarious activities being carried out in the institution.

It was, therefore, decided that a quarterly e-Newsletter would be published to showcase all the prominent activities of the institution.

4. The Practice

A committee is formed under the leadership of a senior professor, with the participation of a few enthusiastic students. The students then start collecting the data, reports, news, and photographs of the activities from all departments. After data collection, useful information is selected, and the editing process begins. With some technical assistance, it is finally published as JH e-News.

The hardcopies of the e-News are then displayed on the notice boards. The soft copy is uploaded on the website of the college and shared with stakeholders.

5. Evidence of Success

The e-News has been received very enthusiastically by other institutions, organisations, and stakeholders. They now have first-hand information about the activities of the college and feel connected with it. The result is perceived in the closer relationship of the institution with the stakeholders and their increased involvement in the institution's activities.

The acclaim obtained by the newsletter has boosted the enthusiasm of the students and the faculty members. The creative abilities of the students have been enhanced.

Since the e-News showcased the individual achievements of students and teachers, they are filled with the urge to do better in their fields. It has also resulted in an enhanced reputation of the institution.

The JH e-News has continued to be published quarterly since its inception. It took different colours and shapes with the changing social and environmental circumstances. During the elections, it bathed in the rainbow colours of voters' awareness programmes carried out by the institution; during the pandemic, it breathed the air of benevolence and sympathy by performing the duty of a responsible component of society through spreading awareness against the pandemic.

The higher authorities of the Department of Higher Education were full of praise and admiration for this practice of the institution whenever the e-News was presented to them.

6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required

A few enthusiastic professors and students are required.

With the energetic and enthusiastic team constituted for implementing the best practice, no problems were encountered. Even the cruel clutches of COVID could not hamper its issuance during the calamity. With the increasing demand for motivation and support for the suffering humanity, the e-News emerged with greater vigour and vitality from the enthusiastic collaborators. Since then, it has continued to showcase all the activities of the institution accomplished with the support of the ever-increasing zeal of its stakeholders.
